

London Digital IAPT Hackathon

Tuesday, 6th February 2018, 9:00am – 5:00pm

Royal College of GP's, 30 Euston Square – London, NW1 2FB
Princes Gate Heritage Room

Programme

Item	Time	Duration	Topic/Activity	Lead
1	0830 - 0900	30m	Welcome and Refreshments	George Howard (Healthy London Partnership Mental Health Lead) Elaine Bennett (Partner, Health), George Miller (Client Innovation)
2	0900-0915	15m	'Problem Statement' for us to address today	George Howard (Mental Health Lead, Healthy London Partnership/NHSE)
3	0915 - 0945	30m	A perspective from our ATOS Scientific Community	John Hall (ATOS Scientific Community)
4	0945 - 1115	1hr30m 15m each. 5 m pres, 10 m discuss	INVESTIGATE: Citizen Segmentation/Research Insights <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Discovery: what systems tell us about Mental Health and Digital 2. What is London Digital Mental Wellbeing 3. What is the London Health Information Exchange 4. Summary of evidence review on Digital IAPT 5. Description of existing patient journey 6. Strawman: Digital IAPT Patient Journey 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Glen Crosier (Lead, Good Thinking Programme) 2. James Wollard (National Clinical Lead Digital IAPT) 3. Mike Part (London Digital Programme) 4. Christian van Stolk (Rand) 5. Dan Burningham (NHS City and Hackney CCG) 6. Alastair Bailey (Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Clinical Lead, Grenfell Health and Wellbeing Service)
5	1115-1130	15m	BREAK
6	1130 - 1200	30m	INVESTIGATE: Explore citizen expectations, needs/wants, and related IAPT challenges and opportunities for priority segments (4 working groups)	Facilitators: George Miller (Vice President Client Innovation, ATOS), John Hall (ATOS Scientific Community)

7	1200 - 1300	60m	DEVELOP: Initial ideation and voting (4 working groups)	Facilitators: George Miller, John Hall
8	1300-1345	45m	LUNCH
9	1345 - 1445	60m	DEVELOP: Second ideation session and voting (4 working groups)	Facilitators: George Miller, John Hall
10	1445 - 1515	30m	ENGAGE: Prioritisation of ideas for progression; next steps	George Miller (Vice President Client Innovation, ATOS)
11	1515-1545	30m	Reflections and Close	Elaine Bennett, George Howard

Depending on level of discussion plan for close at 1600.