Meet the workshop leaders
	Mind on Music Session, Martine Brighton, HFEH MIND Martine delivers interactive music-based psychoeducation workshops and is also part of a band called DEUXES. She is an advocate for the positive effects music can have on mental health and wellbeing.
	Art Session, Zara Antonia Khan, HFEH MIND Zara is an Educational Mental Health Practitioner, who helps young people with CBT based interventions. She is also passionate about creating art whether this be painting, crafts, sculpting, bullet journaling and more.
	Spoken word, Yossi Yossi is a spoken word artist, actor, and educator. He has performed his unique style of poetry at venues such as BAFTA, Tate Modern and the British Museum and his poems have been featured by MTV. Yossi's poetry questions, explores, and portrays the modern world through the mind of a manic yet mindful millennial.
	Creative writing, Rakaya Fetuga Rakaya is a poet, facilitator, and events producer as well as a former resident artist and 2018 poetry slam winner at the Roundhouse. In 2021 Rakaya produced and performed her monodrama, 'Unbraided', about growing up Black and Muslim in London and learning to canerow hair.
